

DETCOG Regional Housing Authority Waiting List Closed

The Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program's waiting list closed April 1, 2006. The waiting list will remain closed throughout the 2006 year (April to December). The next re-opening of the waiting list will occur January 1, 2007.

Housing Authority (HA) staff will only accept written changes and/or a file update from the waiting list family. Examples of changes include address changes, household membership changes, or HA update letter. The Housing Authority update letter will be mailed once during the year (in September). Remember, any and all requests for change must be in written form and must be from the applicant. Submit information to:
